

STATE POLICY OFFICIALS LICENCES

Stewards

All Stewards are to be issued with an appropriate licence together with an AKA Qld identification badge. Identification must be worn when officiating at a race meeting.

The license is renewed each year and endorsed by the State Executive and signed by the State Secretary.

Stewards may make application for upgrade of current status – the requirement for application upgrade guidelines are attached and forms part of this policy.

All Stewards are required to attend at least one Stewards School each year to maintain their Steward licence status.

Technical Officers

Technical Officers licenses are not yet being issued. Technical Schools are conducted on a regular basis in each area and clubs are encouraged to have their members participate in these schools in order to act as Technical Inspectors at race meetings.

Track Safety Officers

Track Safety Officers licenses are not yet being issued, however each affiliated club is to inform the State office of their designated Track Safety officer – each Track Safety Officer is to attend a Track Safety School, which will be arranged by the State Executive.

Track Inspectors

Track Inspectors are currently elected from affiliated club nominations at the Annual General Meeting of AKA Qld each year.
